

Get Mother's Day All Tucked Up - Treat Your Mum to a Long Lie with a Gift of Beautiful and Soft Organic Bedding

Show your mum your appreciation for all those early morning wake up calls and sleepless nights with a special Mother's Day present of luxury, 100% organic cotton bedding to pamper her with an extra special long lie this Mothering Sunday.

Just visit online bedding specialist Fou Furnishings – www.foufurnishings.com – for a beautiful range of 100 per cent organic cotton bed linens, all in very high thread counts, for linens which will make her feel luxuriously pampered and blissfully comfortable. What's more, to celebrate Mother's Day, Fou Furnishings is offering 15 per cent off luxury organic bedding and free P&P with the special promotional code 'specialmum' at the checkout. Your organic bed linen Mother's Day present will come in its own special organic cotton linen bag, with a gift tag for a special message and boxed with tissue paper, making it the perfect pampering present delivered direct to mum's door.

So, as well as giving your mum a luxuriously comfortable long lie and a gorgeous present, you can sleep easy too, knowing the organic bedding will be soft and kind to her skin, the environment and the people involved in making it. We just can't provide the organic breakfast!

Prices start from just £8.50 for a pillowcase and £38 for a single duvet cover during the Mother's Day promotion.

Fou Furnishings organic bedding collection combines classic styles with innovative eco designs. All their organic bed linens are crafted from the highest quality organic cottons for the most luxurious bedding, made and certified to the very highest standards for organic textiles. There is also an organic bedding essentials range for those little extras, including flat and fitted organic cotton sheets, pillow cases and duvet covers in silky soft sateens and crisp percales. Fou Furnishings stocks a range of original gifts for Mother's Day too, with natural bath and body gift sets in soothing lavender and chamomile, organic beauty products, scented soy candles or handmade accessories like their beautiful handbag, made from palest pink lambswool.

All the organic cotton used by Fou Furnishings has been grown without the use of synthetic fertilisers or pesticides and has been treated using only natural and biodegradable means. Fou Furnishings is certified to the Global Organic Textile

Standard (GOTS) which guarantees no toxins or allergy inducing chemicals in their bed linens which you will find on some non-organic textiles.
